

Macmillan Coffee Morning

29th September 2017

(9am – 10am in Barnham Broom Primary School hall)

After you've dropped your child or children off, come and enjoy a hot drink and a slice (or more) of cake; knowing that you are helping to support people who suffering from one of the world's most serious illnesses-cancer.

Sadly, lots of people are suffering, but with your support we could help change that, all together.

Remember that every penny counts!

We welcome all cake donations hand-made or bought!

There will be a cake sale after school for any cakes left after the coffee morning.

If you cannot make it into school and wish to support this event please feel free to send in a donation.

The House and Vice House Captains

(Children have a separate poster explaining that they can wear green in school on this day.)
